COMBINED COMMUNITY GROUP TESTIMONIES

This Wednesday night, we will use the following questions and verses from Psalm 119 to lead us in a time of worship and prayer looking back at how God has kept us and looking ahead in hope at His work in the year to come. Spend some time thinking about how God has blessed you and our church and be prepared to share a blessing, encouragement or passage of scripture.

1 Spend time praising God for His goodness over the last year. What stands out as evidences of His kindness toward you, your family or our church? How has God revealed His character to us this year? What attributes of God have been our strength?

Psalm 119:68 - "You are good and do good; teach me your statutes."

Psalm 119:114 - "You are my hiding place and my shield; I hope in your word."

Psalm 119: 127 - "Make me understand the way of your precepts, and I will meditate on your wondrous works."

2 What passages of scripture has God used in your life over this last year? How has God used the preaching or teaching of His word to change you this last year?

Psalm 119:11 - "I have stored up your word in my heart, that I might not sin against you."

Psalm 119:105 - "Your word is a lamp to my feet and a light to my path."

3 How has God sustained you in trial or difficulty this year? What has God taught you about Himself? Or, How have you seen God sustain someone in our church through trial or difficulty this year? How do you praise God for His work in someone else's life?

Psalm 119:71 - "It is good for me that I was afflicted, that I might learn your statutes."

4 How does God want you to commit to better channeling and displaying His works in the coming year? How can we as a church grow in mutual encouragement, discipleship and evangelism? Who are you praying that God would use you to disciple or share the gospel with?

Psalm 119:74 - "Those who fear you shall see me and rejoice, because I have hoped in your word."
