ROMANS 15:13-14

with joy and peace. Our believing will keep us moving when we might otherwise become discouraged and quit." (Swindoll, Insights on Romans).

Share a time of personal trial that you were able to face with joy and peace, by God's grace.

4	PRAY FOR GOD'S WORK: An appropriate response to Romans 15:13 is to spend time as a group pra and peace in each other. Read the following Bible passages. In which of these four do you sense a spec now? Pray for God to produce the following:	ying for God to produce faith, joy, hope ial need of God's work in your life right
	Faith (Hebrews 11:1, 2 Corinth. 5:7, Hebrews 11:6)
	Joy (1 Peter 1:8-9, Psalm 94:9, 1 Timothy 6:6)
	Hope (Romans 12:12, Hebrews 10:23, Psalm 119:114)
	Peace (Phil 4:6-7, Colossians 3:12-15, Isaiah 26:3)
5	RESPOND WITH PRAISE: Romans 15:13 highlights God as the "God of Hope." How does this truth g	prive hope to your present situation?
	Read Psalm 86 as a group. Go around the group and answer the statement, "Verse teaches me to praise God for His" You can also read the following passages that reveal God's character and work (Psalm 103:13, Lamentations 3:22-23, Psalm 145:17, Rom 11:33).
