

1 What do you most look forward to about the resurrection and why?

 How do you think the resurrection should impact our lives in the areas of work, ministry, and money?

 Specifically, what does it look like for you to live out 1 Corinthians 15:58 in practice?

2 Notice how Paul speaks to our physical state on this earth in this chapter. What kind of frustrations do people experience with their current bodies?

 What hope does 1 Corinthians 15 give to believers regarding the pain of fallenness and the curse?

3 How can you imitate Paul's attitude in light of your confident expectation of resurrection?

 How can you offer yourself to die every day? See 1Cor. 15:30-31.

 How specifically can you risk life and comfort for the gospel?

 What about your life wouldn't make sense without the future resurrection?

4 If one day all powers in the world will be put under Jesus' feet (1Corinthians 15:24), how should that affect the way we relate to earthly powers today?

 How does this apply to specific situations you are facing?

 Read 1Cor. 15:26. How is it personally significant to you that ultimately death will be destroyed?

5 Read Luke 24:13-42; John 20:10-21:14. What can we learn about the nature resurrected bodies from Jesus' resurrected body?

 What do you think (1Cor. 15:51) means?

 Why must all natural physical bodies be changed, even those that have not died?

6 How can 1 Corinthians 15 help those who are grieving the loss of a Christian loved one? How can it strengthen those who are afraid of death? How can resurrection hope enable you to withstand evil and endure pain?
