

Marriage God's Way Week #3

The Theology of Marriage and the Fall

What do we learn from Genesis 2:15-25

- (v. 15) "Work it and take care of it"
- (v. 18) – Companionship, complementarity, suitable helper.
- Implications:

What do we learn from Genesis 2:21-25

- (v. 23) "Bone of my bone and flesh of my flesh"
- (v. 24) – Leaving, Hold fast, one flesh
- Implications:

Sin Enters the world Genesis 2:25; 3:1-5

- At first no shame, then the serpent contradicts God and persuades Adam & Eve.
- Competing voices threaten our marriages
- We were supposed to reflect God not rebel against him

Sin Corrupts both vertical and horizontal relationships Genesis 3:8-15

- Adam and Eve hid from God. Adam blamed Eve and Eve blamed the Serpent.
- Sin corrupts our relationship with God
- Sin corrupts our relationship with our spouse

The Curses – Genesis 3:16-19

- Desire and rule; painful and hard work
- Sin corrupts the good marital order God designed
- Spouses are sinful and they will fail

God's Merciful Plan Genesis 3:15, 21-24

- God expels them and denies access to the tree of life
- God provides immediate and future mercy

Marriage God's Way Week #3

The Theology of Marriage and the Fall

What do we learn from Genesis 2:15-25

- (v. 15) "Work it and take care of it"
- (v. 18) – Companionship, complementarity, suitable helper.
- Implications:

What do we learn from Genesis 2:21-25

- (v. 23) "Bone of my bone and flesh of my flesh"
- (v. 24) – Leaving, Hold fast, one flesh
- Implications:

Sin Enters the world Genesis 2:25; 3:1-5

- At first no shame, then the serpent contradicts God and persuades Adam & Eve.
- Competing voices threaten our marriages
- We were supposed to reflect God not rebel against him

Sin Corrupts both vertical and horizontal relationships Genesis 3:8-15

- Adam and Eve hid from God. Adam blamed Eve and Eve blamed the Serpent.
- Sin corrupts our relationship with God
- Sin corrupts our relationship with our spouse

The Curses – Genesis 3:16-19

- Desire and rule; painful and hard work
- Sin corrupts the good marital order God designed
- Spouses are sinful and they will fail

God's Merciful Plan Genesis 3:15, 21-24

- God expels them and denies access to the tree of life
- God provides immediate and future mercy